

Mission Statement

City Film Productions is dedicated to producing powerful and captivating films on cities of historical significance related to the early development of the United States.

We fulfill this mission by a commitment to:

1. Fostering understanding and recognition of contributions and achievements of individuals, cultural groups and organizations that measurably participated in a city's history.
2. Designing effective and relevant to student's interests online learning programs related to the documentary films we produce.
3. To assist local archival services in attaining and preserving historically significant materials for future generations.
4. To produce films that globally promote a city's brand and image resulting in measurable improvements in commerce and recognition.

Accountability

City Film Productions subscribes to the beliefs espoused within the Donor's Bill of Rights and strives that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in our organization. We also strive to ensure that donor funds are used effectively for their intended purposes. Feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

Although we are a newly formed nonprofit studio we are cognizant in the importance of maintaining operating efficiency

Budget Breakdown

Production	67%
Administrative Expense	12%
Fundraising Expense	21%

Production

Archival image costs, filming, lighting, sound, equipment rentals, animation, aerial equipment, travel, narrator, scriptwriter and researchers, dvd reproduction, reimbursement for travel and hotel for on-camera historians, space rental,

Administrative

Legal and financial representation, city, state and federal fees, Website design and maintenance, office supplies, copying, phone, internet campaign printing, publicity, mailing, staffing.

Fundraising

Bonus Tracks: Charleston, SC Today and the Classroom Edition